

Commands:

Unzip, word count, list words from a word list n in Kali Linux gunzip /usr/share/wordlists/rockyou.txt.gz

#Check word count in rockyou.txt wc /usr/share/wordlists/rockyou.txt

#Open rockyou.txt in the terminal cat /usr/share/wordlists/rockyou.txt # count the number of entries with password1 cat /usr/share/wordlists/rockyou.txt | grep password1 |wc

Display the number of entries with password 1
cat /usr/share/wordlists/rockyou.txt | grep password1

Word count, list words from a word list
wc /usr/share/wordlists/fasttrack.txt

#Open fasttrack.txt in the terminal cat /usr/share/wordlists/fasttrack.txt

Word count, list words from a word list
cat /usr/share/wordlists/fasttrack.txt | grep letmein cat /usr/share/wordlists/rockyou.txt | grep letmein

#Ubuntu terminal-fetches the latest package lists from the repositories sudo apt update

#installing SSH server
sudo apt install openssh-server

#allow SSH traffic through the Uncomplicated Firewall (UFW) on Ubuntu.
sudo ufw allow ssh

ssh status
service ssh status

#check ip of Ubuntu
Ip addr (Our result; Ubuntu ip:10.0.2.15)

log in to a remote ssh server with a specific username ssh abdul@10.0.2.15

#To logout SSH connection
logout

#Hydra ssh with specific username and word list hydra -V -f -t 4 -l abdul -P /usr/share/wordlists/fasttrack.txt ssh://10.0.2.15

#wireshark filter ssh&&ip.addr==10.0.2.15

#Setting hydra for our own list hydra -V -f -t 4 -l abdul -P mylist.txt ssh://10.0.2.15

#Filtering ssh successful login attempts in wireshark
ssh&&frame.len==96

#Filtering ssh un-successful login attempts in wireshark
ssh&&frame.len==120